La Resina / Estepona

Where dreams become reality

Introducing The Heights at La Resina - a luxury development of just 11 exclusive villas, set in an exclusive and secure golf and country club estate, front-line to the La Resina Golf Course.

Each of the villas has been designed to blend contemporary architecture with sleek, modern style interiors with smart open-plan layouts.

Set on two levels, the villas have double-height ceilings to maximise the feeling of space and allows the property to flood with natural lights. The properties will be built using only the best materials throughout and finished to the highest standard.

Your generous garden space includes a stunning private pool, poolside fire pit with ambient lighting. Every comfort and optional feature you choose will create the home of your dreams.

The elevated position of the project gives you wonderful views over the Mediterranean Sea.
